

APPENDIX I
ASSESSOR QUALIFICATIONS

ASSESSOR QUALIFICATIONS

Nancy Saxberg, M.A. – Senior Archaeologist/ Heritage Specialist

Ms. Saxberg is the Lead of the Historical Resources Group for AMEC in Calgary, Alberta. She has been working in Canadian archaeology for 20 years. She holds Ontario Professional Licence P329. Ms. Saxberg has directed projects ranging from small assessments and construction monitoring to large excavations employing multiple crews. She has worked on many projects in Ontario and Alberta and is recognized as a specialist on early precontact Aboriginal sites, historic fur trade and exploration sites, and early twentieth-century domestic and industrial sites. She holds an M.A. and B.A. in Anthropology from the University of Toronto.

Barbara Slim, M.A. – Field Researcher

Ms. Slim is an archaeologist with seven years of experience in cultural resource management. She has conducted historical and archaeological background research, field surveys, excavations, analysis of cultural artifacts, and reporting. Ms. Slim holds an M.A. in Anthropology and a B.A. in Environmental Studies and Anthropology from Trent University. She currently holds Professional Licence P348.

Cara Howell, B.A. – Field Researcher

Ms. Howell is an archaeologist with over 10 years of experience in cultural resource management. During this time, she has acquired a full range of archaeological skills and has developed an expert understanding of historic Euro-Canadian artifacts. She has completed historic research from literature review to archival documentation. Ms. Howell holds a B.A. in Anthropology from McMaster University and currently holds a valid Ontario Archaeological Research Licence R18.

Shaun Austin, Ph.D. – Senior Reviewer

Dr. Austin is the Lead of Amec's archaeology group in Ontario and is based in the Hamilton office. He has been working in Canadian archaeology since 1976 and has over 23 years of archaeological consulting experience in Southern Ontario. He is a dedicated cultural heritage consultant with repeated success guiding archaeological projects through to completion, satisfying development proponents, regulators, and other stakeholders. His areas of expertise include precontact Aboriginal lithic and ceramic analyses. Dr. Austin holds Professional Licence P141.